When Jesus comes, He will come quickly. Are you ready? Today's headlines seem to be straight from the Bible! The attention of the whole world is on the Middle East and the tiny country of Israel. But why should that matter to you? It is increasingly critical that we live holy lives today in light of His soon return. Join us to find out what that means for those who believe and for those who don't know what to think.

Our two internationally known speakers, David Hocking and Jacob Prasch, will help us focus on what is most important as we face our changing world and look forward to the return of the King of Kings. Come and be encouraged about our great hope.

Jacob Prasch

Is a Hebrew-speaking bible expositor and director of Moriel Ministries. Born in New York, he originally set out to disprove the validity of the Bible with science, history, and archaeology. He now teaches eschatology. He travels the world with the conviction that humanity is in the "Last Days" citing events in the Middle East, society's moral deterioration, environmental destruction, globalization, the rise of a pseudo-democratic federal Europe, and contemporary church apostasy as events of prophetic significance. Prasch's two latest books are "The Dilemma of Laodicea" and "Shadows of the Beast." Jacob was also instrumental as the Bible Expositor in the highly acclaimed 2011 documentary on Biblical prophecy "The Daniel Project." In addition to his preaching on prophetic text, Jacob is influential in the area of discernment ministry.
